Re: Noyes v. Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada
Civil action no. 05-CV-11640-NG

Dear Counselor;

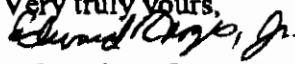

Upon receiving your fax today re: setting up a date for mediation, then the phone discussion we had today, where you stated that if we cannot settle at mediation that I will be responsible for half of the bill, $600.00, enough is enough.

I have nothing but the highest respect for the Court and Judge Alexander, I have agreed to come down to 50% of the claim, with the retroactive, totaling $200,000.00, and you are offering 33%, in light as you know I reside in Florida for the winter months, doctor's orders, plus my wife is disabled, I cannot leave my wife alone for too long. I cannot come back and forth flying, the cost is too demanding on our financial situation, In light that the Court has ordered us back to Court on April 21, 2006, I will have to make travel arrangements in advance, the bottom line is this:

I will agree to take a total of $200,000.00 as a buy-out, which is more than fair, this offer is good till next Friday, March 31, 2006, where I then will make travel arrangements to fly back here for the April 21, 2006 court date. I will let the Court decide if I Am disabled, if she does not think I am disabled, a lot of doctors, including doctors that Sun Life contacted to examine me and my records are WRONG.

I am forwarding a copy of this to the Court, and I hope that the Court can respect my position.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, I am returning back to Florida tomorrow.

Very truly yours,
